

Virtual Endangered Species Event

Wednesday December 8th, 2021

9:00 – 9:15 am	Opening remarks Freshwater Land Trust
9:15 – 10:00 am	Alabama At-risk Species, Listing Process Jenna King, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
10:00 – 10:45 am	Alabama Snails and Mussels, Alabama Pearl Shell Morgan Brizendine, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service
10:45 – 11:30 am	Threatened and Endangered Crayfish Dr. Rebecca Bearden, Geological Survey of Alabama
11:30 – 12:30 pm	Climate change effects on the Southeast and its rivers Dr. Scot Duncan, Birmingham Southern College
12:30 – 1:30 pm	Break for lunch
1:30 – 1:45 pm	Saved: The Story of the Watercress Darter Short film by Ingrid Pfau, UAB Media Studies (2008)
1:45 – 2:45 pm	Watercress, Rush, Vemilion Darters Dr. Bernie Kuhajda, Tennessee Aquarium Conservation Institute
2:45 – 3:15 pm	Rush Darters, Bankhead National Forest Dylan Shaw, Alabama Power Company, and Rollins Jolly, USDA
3:15 – 3:45 pm	Urban Conservation, Turkey Creek Nature Preserve Threatened and Endangered Species Charles Yeager, Turkey Creek Nature Preserve
3:45 – 4:30 pm	SHUs, Alabama Rivers and Streams Network (ARSN), AL Waterways Dr. Pat O'Neil, Geological Survey of Alabama
4:30 – 4:45 pm	Final questions, closing remarks